

Clinical Consideration in Aeromedical Transport CRaMA and AmCRM, Bangkok, Thailand 2019

Venue: Rangsit University, Bangkok, Thailand

Course: CRaMA and AmCRM

Course Director: Dr. Terry Martin

Consultant in Anesthesia and Intensive Care Medicine

Director, CCAT Aeromedical Training

Board Adviser (Standards & Education)

EURAMI (European Aeromedical Institute)

Chairman of International Air Ambulance Standards and Aeromedical Education Germany

16th -18th October, 2019

CCAT Thailand (CRaMA + AmCRM)

- ✚ What is CRaMA + AmCRM: Commercial Repatriation and Medical Assistance (CRaMA) and Aeromedical Crew Resource Management (AmCRM)
- ✚ Who Can Join: Doctors, Nurses, and other medical assistance or travel insurance professionals
- ✚ The 3 days courses will cover introduction of world travel and health structure of the industry, relationship with travel insurance, medicolegal aspects, duty and standard of care, complexities of case management oversea, risk analysis systems to prevent errors and failings, logistics and medical management, repatriation demographics, security and duty of care to transport staff with sections of simple and major complex case studies in groups.

Sign Up Now

Price: 1110 USD (34,965 THB)

Sign up before October 9th, 2019

All above Fees Include:

CCAT CRaMA and AmCRM course (class room based study), certificate for those who complete and passed the test after the course, lunch, coffee and breaks.

Class is limited to a maximum of 30 students. Attendance can only be confirmed upon receipt of completed registration form & payment.

GROUP DISCOUNTS

Price: 1010 USD (31,815 THB)

Available until August 30th, 2019 for company that have more than one person sign up

Contact Information:

Khatt Srey Noch (Noch)
CCAT Coordinator

Phone: + 66 2056 1800 Ext: 302
Email: ccat@asian-assistance.com

